SHOULD PANTO DAME PLAY FROM THE LADIES TEES AT 2020 THEATRE ROYAL GOLF DAY?

The popular Theatre Royal- Bury St Edmunds Golf Day this year will be held at Stowmarket Golf Club on Thursday April 9th 2020. The planning this year for this huge event is steeped in controversy as the Peter Pan Pantomime- Dame Tiger Lilly aka actor Chris Clarkson has put a strong case that he should be playing from the ladies Tee and receiving the 1 courtesy shot that all the ladies receive.

Golf Day organiser, Ian Duncan comments, "It is a real headache because I understand the point that Tiger Lilly raises. I will seriously consider the request and obviously make a decision shortly before the event. I really need time to consider the precedence that the situation raises. My first thoughts are to allow the request but subject to Tiger Lilly playing in full panto outfit and make up".

The Theatre Royal Golf Day is one of the largest Charity events in the eastern region is in its 10th year having raised many thousands for the Theatre and its community involvement. This years' event at Stowmarket Golf Club is a Team Stableford competition, Team of 4 with the best three scores to count on each hole. The Cost to enter a team is £130 per team which includes Coffee and Bacon Roll on arrival followed by Fish and Chips after playing 18 holes. There is always a generous prize table and various surprises. Please book your team early to avoid disappointment as the list of entries is building up quickly.
